

WEARS NAVY UNIFORM ILLEGALLY; IS JAILED

Robert N. Truman, Spokane, Wash., to Face Trial At End of Present Term

CHARGE OF FORGERY

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 10.—(INS)—A 28-year-old ex-sailor today began a four months prison sentence for illegally wearing a sailor's uniform.

The prisoner, Robert N. Truman, of Spokane, Wash., will face trial in Doylestown upon completion of the term on charges of forgery.

FBI agents testified Truman was honorably discharged from the navy Feb. 28, 1943, and the following August was sentenced to six months by a Federal Court in New York for illegally wearing a naval uniform.

In July, 1944, a woman friend allegedly took him to the home of Perry Chapman, at Cottageville, near Doylestown, where he stayed for nearly three months. Truman allegedly later forged Chapman's name to two checks, totaling $315. He was arrested by FBI agents in New York last November 20 and brought to Philadelphia.

Federal Judge Guy K. Bard imposed a four months sentence in view of the fact that Truman already had been in jail seven weeks since his arrest.

The jurist told Truman the Bucks County Court "will take care of you on the forgery charge."

Two Juveniles Steal Six Pairs of Shoes

Two little boys, aged nine and 10, respectively, are to be taken to juvenile court by Bristol police. The lads have been involved in various escapades, the climax of which was reached Tuesday.

The names of the youngsters are being withheld by the police.

The lads gained an entrance into the display window of a well-known Mill street shoe store and took out six pairs of shoes. One of the boys put one pair of shoes on and wore them. Four other pairs were found in a trash can in a nearby alley, where police believe the boys placed them intending later to get them. One pair is missing, and the boys told the police that this pair was placed on the ground near the can because there was not room in the can.

Then the juveniles went to the second floor of a Mill street apartment and took three manicure sets. They were recovered.

Telephone Workers Strike in 44 States

The Bell Telephone Company announced today signing of a contract with the Pennsylvania Telephone Workers' Association of telephone operators granting a $5 weekly wage increase.

Approximately 11,000 operators in the state will benefit. Inexperienced operators will receive $28 for a 40-hour week. Periodic increases will raise their pay to $39 weekly.

The strike of ACA-CIO telegraph workers is confined to greater New York City. It was stated today by Harry Hamer, manager of the Bristol office of the Western Union Telegraph Co.

"The local effect of the strike is that telegrams to and from New York City are subject to indefinite delay," Mr. Hamer said. "Telegraph traffic to and from all other points in the United States is moving at normal speed."

"Cable and radio traffic to European and South American points normally handled through New York gateway has been interrupted as a result of the New York strike."

Last minute effort was under way today to end the day-old strike of telephone installation workers in 44 states which threatens to cripple phone service in cities from coast to coast starting tomorrow.

Federal Conciliator J. R. Mandelbaum arranged a meeting in New York at 9 a. m. today between representatives of the striking Association of Communications Equipment Workers and Western Electric, manufacturing subsidiary of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in an eleven-hour attempt to head off a national phone tie-up.

Meanwhile 18,000 striking installation men who walked out yesterday in every state but Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Montana went ahead with their plans to start picketing exchanges tomorrow in their strike for a $6 weekly pay raise.

Phone operators and other telephone employees in most cities were expected to refuse to cross the picket lines. Only dial telephones would be left unaffected.

A two-hour session yesterday between ACEW and Western Electric officials, with Mandelbaum presiding, apparently bogged down on whether negotiations should continue on long-standing wartime issues of wages, travel time and expenses and helpers' expenses.

The company wants postwar issues settled as well. The union has intimated that it will make new postwar demands only after the wartime dispute is settled. As it now stands, the new contract sought by the union would expire in April.

CHESTER.—(INS)—Justice of the Peace H. E. Gaskill was given a special incentive to press for the elimination of robberies when a thief jacked up his automobile and stole the rear tires.

KNOW YOUR STATE

Pennsylvania's first peace-time New Year after four years of the greatest war in history should be the dawn of a new period of opportunity to all the people of the Commonwealth.

In the past four years Pennsylvania has performed a supreme feat of production. War contracts totaling nearly $15,000,000,000 and representing every conceivable variety of munitions from flags and uniforms to tanks, battleships, and heavy guns were produced in incredible quantity by the manufacturers of the State. In addition, throughout the period of the war Pennsylvania produced more than 30 per cent of all the coal mined in the United States and nearly one-third of all the steel. It refined nearly two billion gallons of gasoline every year and produced a great fleet of battleships, oil tank-ers, landing craft, sub-chasers, cargo ships, and submarines. It developed a capacity for the output of steel exceeding that of Germany and twice that of either Great Britain or Russia. With little help from imported labor and despite the absence of 900,000 young men and women, the State's industrial production expanded beyond all previous records and its agriculture provided food for millions of people.

Due to the forward-looking action of the General Assembly of 1945 under the leadership of Governor Martin, Pennsylvania approaches the new year with many advantages. An extensive program was authorized to clean up all the streams and rivers in the Commonwealth; to extend the already fine system of public roads; and to improve our State parks, our hospitals, and our penal institutions. Health Services were expanded to include the periodic examination of all school children in the Commonwealth. The pay of public school teachers was permanently increased and now sets the highest standard in our Nation.

Nearly 1,200,000 Pennsylvanians have served in the Armed Forces in the Second World War. More Pennsylvanians than citizens of any other state received the highest military award in the power of the Nation to bestow. With such a record of achievement, with the natural resources of the greatest mineral producing State in the Union and a state pre-eminent in more than fifty lines of manufacture, all that remains to insure the future of Pennsylvania's more than 10-000,000 people is their united will to make the postwar years the busiest and the most productive in the whole history of the Commonwealth.

FAMED CHOIR BACK

CLINTON, N. Y., Dec. 9.—(INS)—Hamilton College's widely known choir, which grew nationally famous under the late Alexander Woolcott's plaudits, will resume public recitals in the spring after a wartime lapse. President David Worcester announced today.

The group will be directed by Professor Berrian R. Shute, successor to Professor Paul A. Fancher, long-time director who retired prior to the war.

DO YOU RIDE? On a horse? Prepare yourself for an added thrill—genuine caulkkin riding boots! You riding gals and your gallants are lucky, as such boots as those I've just discovered in the Snellenburg Shoe Dept., decidedly in the luxury class, did a disappearing act when shoe rationing came into being. Now, after about four years, we have real beauties. This good shop's prices are most reasonable for such quality—women's boots $16.50 and men's boots $17.95! (1st fl.)

NEW NOTES in blouse are delightfully accomplished in a Chinese coolie-collared version and a turtle-topped creation, both made of "Kilts" pure dye spun silk in sweet shades—rose, beige, gold, melon, and aqua, in sizes 32 to 38. These smart little things go well with suits or even dinner skirts. Priced at $5.98. Snellenburg Sports Wear Dept. (2nd fl.)

EXTRA BLANKETS for our own households or for gifting winter brides are now selling in the Snellenburg Bed Coverings Dept. Sweet to look at, these shades of blue, green, rose or darker winter rose, these particular blankets I have in mind are priced at but $7.67 each. Yes, they're 100% wool! Nice rayon satin binding. Good size—72 x 84 ins. Keep a shopping eye on this department as the season progresses. In spite of scarcities, when articles are to be had at all, this shop will have 'em and at the fairest of prices. (2nd fl.)

ROMANTIC CUP-BOARDS—the corner kind, with open top and lower ones, and gay designs and posies hand-painted over all! Or, unpainted ones may be bought to be painted by your talented self! The Snellenburg Unpainted Furniture Section (in the Housefurnishings Dept.) has both it. This shop now has it in 7 1/2 oz. cans at 26c. The open fish delicacies and seasoned meats, by the way, are fresh daily. (1st fl.)

GET ACQUAINTED with the Delicatessen Section of the Snellenburg Chestnut Street Food Store. It has more luscious variety than any woman on a diet ought to know about. Seriously, though, it's a grand place to do your luncheon or supper table shopping. So often, too, ordinarily scarce delicacies are not scarce here. Take such a simple thing as the better quality of pink salmon—how we've missed it. This shop now has it in 7 1/2 oz. cans at 26c. The open fish delicacies and seasoned meats, by the way, are fresh daily. (1st fl.)

INCREASINGLY POPULAR is the hobby of making rugs at home, and, of all things, among the men! The clever instructress in the Snellenburg Art Needlework Dept. has taught many a husband whose wife's rugging intrigued him. Both professional and business men are interested. Now returned soldiers and sailors, some familiar with interesting occupational therapy, are showing an interest in this work. There are several ways of making these hand-wrought rugs. Visit the Snellenburg Art Needlework Dept. and have the rugs explained to you. Some of them do not require frames, some can be made in small squares. Start the family rugging! Instructions are free with purchase of materials. (2nd fl.)

TWO, NOT ONE, laundry cases should be provided for each student or person away from home. This arrangement gives better service and saves a lot of family arguments and letters of exasperation—with planned mailing there'll be a case at each end of the line! And don't forget that these easily packed and mailed cases are good for shipping other things besides laundry. Personally, I wouldn't be without one for just general family use. The Snellenburg Luggage Dept. has just received a shipment of strongly made fibre cases with metal reinforcements, reversible address cards, leather handles, 21 in. size. Priced at but $2.25 plus 20% tax. (1st fl.)

"FOR MEN ONLY"—a quick clearance of men's warm-up jackets, valued at $9.95 to $19.95. So many different kinds, including gabardines and poplins, all, of course, wind and water-repellent. There are rugged, heavy coats; medium weight jackets; short action jackets; garments lined with sheep, pile, or blanket. Sizes run from 36 to 46. The clearance is now going on in the Sporting Goods Dept. of the Snellenburg store. This is a very satisfying Dept. for both dads and big sons. Prices are extremely fair for the quality of goods displayed. Now, get there in time for the jacket sale! (3rd fl.)

P.S. Do send clippings with mail orders when you can! Phone free (5c, 10c, and 15c out-of-town calls only). Penna.—ENT, 10160; Jersey—WX-1150. Shop located Market, 11th to 13th Sts., Phila.—through to 1225-29 Chestnut St. Be hearing' from you! Faithfully, FAITH.

A LOSER'S JOB

The sinking of the U. S. S. minesweeper Minivet off Kyushu, with an undisclosed number of casualties, is likely to arouse much resentment in the United States. She was engaged in clearing the sea of Japanese mines which were laid when the invasion of Japan was in prospect.

According to the American way of thinking, the job of clearing land and water of war mines should be the loser's job. The sweeping should be done by Japanese mine-layers, manned by Japanese crews, but under American supervision and, if necessary, under American guns.

In Italy and France, German prisoners of war are being used to find and detonate land mines and to clear the country of booby traps. The German soldiers are better qualified than anyone else to know where the mines were planted and how to handle them. Why risk good American lives to make farms, roads and buildings safe for the people?

The Navy's explanation that the Minivet is the first minesweeper that it has lost in clearing 24,000 square miles of water since V-J Day does not tell the whole story. One minesweeper lost is too many. But the strain under which the crews work is worse. They are being subjected to many of the hardships of combat service long after combat is over. They have earned the right to relief from the strain.

And certainly the Navy has enough Japanese craft and enough Japanese officers and seamen available to rid the sea of these menaces to navigation.

ON ITS WAY OUT

Recent demonstrations by American and Australian troops emphasize the fact that free men will not submit to rigid military control nor an army class system. American soldiers in Manila feared their officers badly by putting on a demonstration against red tape in getting home. Petitions signed by service men, going over the heads of officers, have been frequent.

Officers are trained to frown severely upon such things and they do, but a little group of officers cannot frown severely in public upon thousands of G. I.'s who are in the right and have the folk at home backing them up.

This outburst of service men against "higher authority" is not confined to the United States. Several days ago Australians and New Zealanders, en route home in a troop ship from Europe, took over tugs at Cape Town, South Africa, when denied shore leave, and went ashore where they staged a demonstration.

Had the war been on incidents such as these would not have occurred. But the war is over and militarism is on its way out in free countries.

Had the war continued that 200,000 ounces of opium recently destroyed in Japan would have meant hundreds of victorious Japanese communiques so common during the last days of the conflict.

"MY DAY" AND PEACE

She found that the program already had been worked out, that all she was supposed to do was to carry out the ideas of these other persons, and that these State Department bureaucrats spoke a language she could not even understand!

Of course, Mrs. Roosevelt didn't put the matter in exactly those words. Here is what she said:

"To most of the regular State Department officials the Charter is a handbook which they know so well that they refer to chapters and sections by numbers. This, to someone who read it only once or twice and knows the subjects but not the details, is somewhat confusing."

Confusing is right! Did she insist that the bureaucrats speak in words that the delegates could understand? Oh, no! She obligingly set out to learn the bureaucratic language.

"Fortunately we had experts who went over every item of the agenda and proposed structure and answered any questions which were in our minds. So, day after day, I went to meetings, listened and questioned and then went back and read, until now I begin to feel I have a little background."

The important point, of course, is that the "little background Mrs. Roosevelt now claims is the carefully emphasized point of view of these mysterious 'experts.'"

Who are the "experts?"

Times without number, it has been charged that the State Department is staffed by "advanced thinkers," many of whom, so far as ideology is concerned, are almost frankly Communist.

From the Dies Committee down to the recent Hurley episode, this accusation has been made again and again. Never has it been fully investigated. Various Secretaries of State have admitted one way or another that the tail of hired help wagged the dog of national policy. They have done nothing to correct the situation.

Behind these career workers, whose origin and beliefs have so often been in question, is the prestige of one of the largest and much the most powerful branch of the Federal government, the over-grown State Department.

Behind them also is one of the biggest publicity staffs in Washington, with propaganda resources going far into the millions and vast power of direct and indirect censorship.

Many mysterious occurrences have come to light in the State Department—powerful lobby activities on the floor of Congress; more than once the "over-ruling" of official White House policies; signs of dangerous cross-alliances with State Departments in other foreign lands beyond the supervisions of courts, Congress or even the President.

During the war there were instances of secret documents being taken unauthorized from the files and shown to no-one-knows-whom.

In some cases, "top secret" documents were used as source material for "exclusive" magazine articles by these career men and for other commercial purposes. These cases have not been adequately investigated, nor have they been punished.

The words of Mrs. Roosevelt may be taken as indirect confirmation of a scandalous and dangerous situation: that a cluster of obscure "public servants" in the State Department are presuming to involve the American government in entangling foreign alliances which no one understands except themselves—if they do.

The welfare of the United States and the future of world peace are at stake.

World War III, national bankruptcy, and the communizing of the American form of government may be the fruits of mistakes which result from turning high authority over to such small-fry, unanswerable to the American people.

The Great Game of Politics

fort to force their acquiescence in the theory of Mr. Roosevelt's greatness of mind and soul. For example, there are two projects now being pushed by Mr. Roosevelt's friends to which they find it rather hard to subscribe. One of these is the movement to make his birthday a national holiday. It is exceedingly doubtful that a majority of the people are in favor of this. There is no great demand that Mr. Roosevelt thus be put on a par with Washington and Lincoln.

—O—

YET, opposition to the idea is regarded as wicked. It is the same way with the move to select Hyde Park as the permanent site of the United Nations Organization. In effect, this would make of the UNO plant a monument to Mr. Roosevelt. In the view of a great many, that would be eminently fitting. Mr. Roosevelt did not originate the UNO idea. If the memory of any American President is to be honored by this site, clearly, it should be that of Woodrow Wilson, founder of the League of Nations, in the support of which (at the time it badly needed support) Mr. Roosevelt, to put it mildly, was lukewarm.

—O—

IF THE many millions who loved and admired Mr. Roosevelt want to erect a great memorial to him, no one possibly could object to their raising the money and doing so. There is a movement now to have his friends collect a huge endowment fund and found, in Washington, a great university in his name for the study of international relations. This is a very commendable idea. But the attempt to make it appear that the nation as a whole desires such a memorial, when so large a part of the nation did not admire him at all, is bad taste and poor judgment. Opposition to a national monument through official action does not involve hate; it is merely a matter of self-respect and an avoidance of hypocrisy.

WEARS NAVY UNIFORM ILLEGALLY; IS JAILED

Robert N. Truman, Spokane, Wash., to Face Trial At End of Present Term

CHARGE OF FORGERY

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 10—(INS)—A 28-year-old ex-sailor today began a four months prison sentence for illegally wearing a sailor's uniform.

The prisoner, Robert N. Truman, 28, of Spokane, Wash., will face trial in Doylestown upon completion of the term on charges of forgery.

FBI agents testified Truman was dishonorably discharged from the Navy Feb. 28, 1943, and the following August was sentenced to six months by a Federal Court in New York for illegally wearing a naval uniform.

In July, 1944, a woman friend allegedly took him to the home of Harry Chapman, at Cottageville, near Doylestown, where he stayed for nearly three months. Truman allegedly later forged Chapman's name to two checks, totaling $315. He was arrested by FBI agents in New York last November 20 and brought to Philadelphia.

Federal Judge Guy K. Bard imposed a four months sentence in view of the fact that Truman already had been in jail seven weeks since his arrest.

The jurist told Truman the Bucks County Court "will take care of you on the forgery charge."

HULMEVILLE

Gathering at the home of Mrs. Edwin W. Henry, Sr., and Mrs. Roland Scribner on Tuesday evening, members of the Ladies' Aid Society of Neshaunty Methodist Church participated in their monthly business meeting. Miss Grace H. Illick presided and led the devotional period. Mrs. G. A. Japchen read the minutes; with treasurer's reports being given by the assistant treasurer, Mrs. Linfred Benner. Refreshments were served.

Two Juveniles Steal Six Pairs of Shoes

Two little boys, aged nine and 10, respectively, are to be taken to juvenile court by Bristol police. The lads have been involved in various escapades, the climax of which was reached Tuesday.

The names of the youngsters are being withheld by the police.

The lads gained an entrance into the display window of a well-known Mill street shoe store and took out six pairs of shoes. One of the boys put one pair of shoes on and wore them. Four other pairs were found in a trash can in a nearby alley, where police believe the boys placed them intending later to get them. One pair is missing, and the boys told the police that this pair was placed on the ground near the can because there was not room in the can.

Then the juveniles went to the second floor of a Mill street apartment and took three manicure sets. They were recovered.

Telephone Workers Strike in 44 States

The Bell Telephone Company announced today signing of a contract with the Pennsylvania Telephone Employees' Association of telephone operators granting a $5 weekly wage increase.

Approximately 11,000 operators in the state will benefit. Inexperienced operators will receive $28 for a 40-hour week. Periodic increases will raise their pay to $39 weekly.

The strike of ACA-CIO telegraph workers is confined to greater New York City. It was stated today by Harry Hamer, manager of the Bristol office of the Western Union Telegraph Co.

"The local effect of the strike is that telegrams to and from New York City are subject to indefinite delay," Mr. Hamer said. "Telegraph traffic to and from all other points in the United States is moving at normal speed."

"Cable and radio traffic to European and South American points normally handled through New York gateway has been interrupted as a result of the New York strike."

Last minute effort was under way today to end the day-old strike of telephone installation workers in 44 states which threatens to cripple phone service in cities from coast to coast starting tomorrow.

Federal Conciliator J. R. Mandelbaum arranged a meeting in New York at 9 a. m. today between representatives of the striking Association of Communications Equipment Workers and Western Electric, manufacturing subsidiary of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in an eleventh-hour attempt to head off a national phone tie-up.

Meanwhile 18,000 striking installation men who walked out yesterday in every state but Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Montana went ahead with their plans to start picketing exchanges tomorrow in their strike for a $6 weekly pay raise.

Phone operators and other telephone employees in most cities were expected to refuse to cross the picket lines. Only dial telephones would be left unaffected.

A two-hour session yesterday between ACEW and Western Electric officials, with Mandelbaum presiding, apparently bogged down on whether negotiations should continue on long-standing wartime issues of wages, travel time and expenses and helpers' expenses.

The company wants postwar issues settled as well. The union has intimated that it will make new postwar demands only after the wartime dispute is settled. As it now stands, the new contract sought by the union would expire in April.

CHESTER—(INS)—Justice of the Peace H. E. Gaskill was given a special incentive to press for the elimination of robberies when a thief jacked up his automobile and stole the rear tires.

At the first sign of a chest cold—rub Musterole on the chest, throat and back. Musterole immediately starts right in to relieve coughs, sore throat and tight muscles. It actually helps break up painful local congestion.

Musterole offers all the advantages of a warming, stimulating mustard plaster yet is so much easier to apply. No fuss. No muss. Just rub it on for prompt relief. In 3 strengths. All drugstores.

KNOW YOUR STATE

Pennsylvania's first peace-time New Year after four years of the greatest war in history should be the dawn of a new period of opportunity to all the people of the Commonwealth.

In the past four years Pennsylvania has performed a supreme feat of production. War contracts totaling nearly $15,000,000,000 and representing every conceivable variety of munitions from flags and uniforms to tanks, battleships, and heavy guns were produced in incredible quantity by the manufacturers of the State. In addition, throughout the period of the war Pennsylvania produced more than 30 per cent of all the coal mined in the United States and nearly one-third of all the steel. It refined nearly two billion gallons of gasoline every year and produced a great fleet of battleships, oil tank-ers, landing craft, sub-chasers, cargo ships, and submarines. It developed a capacity for the output of steel exceeding that of Germany and twice that of either Great Britain or Russia. With little help from imported labor and despite the absence of 900,000 young men and women, the State's industrial production expanded beyond all previous records and its agriculture provided food for millions of people.

Due to the forward-looking action of the General Assembly of 1945 under the leadership of Governor Martin, Pennsylvania approaches the new year with many advantages. An extensive program was authorized to clean up all the streams and rivers in the Commonwealth; to extend the already fine system of public roads; and

Faith Clark's SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

DO YOU RIDE? On a horse? Prepare yourself for an added thrill—genuine calfskin riding boots! You riding gals and your gallants are lucky, as such boots as those I've just discovered in the Snellenburg Shoe Dept. decidedly in the luxury class, did a disappearing act when shoe rationing came into being. Now, after about four years, we have real beauties. This good shop's prices are most reasonable for such quality—women's boots $16.50 and men's boots $17.95! (1st fl.)

NEW NOTES in blouses are delightfully exemplified in a Chinese coolie-collared version and a turtle-topped creation, both made of "Kittie" pure dye spun silk in sweet shades—rose, beige, gold, melon, and aqua, in sizes 32 to 38. These smart little things are well with suits or even dinner skirts. Priced at $5.95. Snellenburg Sports Wear Dept. (2nd fl.)

EXTRA BLANKETS for our own households or for gifting winter brides are now selling in the Snellenburg Bed Coverings Dept. Sweet to look at in good shades of blue, green, rose or dark winter rose, these particular blankets I have in mind are priced at but $7.67 each. Yes, they're 100% wool! Nice rayon satin bindings. Good size—72 x 84 ins. Keep a shopping eye on this department as the season progresses. In spite of scarcities, when articles are to be had at all, this shop will have 'em and at the fairest of prices. (2nd fl.)

ROMANTIC CUPBOARD—the corner kind, with open top shelves and decorated lower ones, and gay designs and posies hand-painted over all! Or, unpainted ones may be bought to be painted by your talented self! The Snellenburg Unpainted Furniture Section (in the Housefurnishings Dept.) has both kinds—painted at $39.98, unpainted at $16.98. These little cupboards fairly sing, and each will prove a merry note in any breakfast room or informal diningroom. (3rd fl.)

GET ACQUAINTED with the Delicatessen Section of the Snellenburg Chestnut Street Food Store. It has more luscious variety than any woman on a diet ought to know about. Seriously, though, it's a grand place to do your luncheon or supper table shopping. So often, too, ordinarily scarce delicacies are not scarce here. Take such a simple thing as the better quality of pink salmon—how we've missed it! This Shop now has it in 7 1/2 oz. cans at 29c. The open fish delicacies and seasoned meats, by the way, are fresh daily. (1st fl.)

INCREASINGLY POPULAR is the hobby of making rugs at home, and, of all things, the clever instructress in the Snellenburg Art Needlework Dept. has taught many a husband whose wife's rugging intrigued him. Both professional and business men are interested. Now returned soldiers and sailors, some familiar with interesting occupational therapy, are showing an interest in this work. There are several ways of making these hand-wrought rugs. Visit the Snellenburg Art Needlework Dept. and have the rugs explained to you. Some of them do not require frames, some can be made in small squares. Start the family rugging! Instructions are free with purchase of materials. (2nd fl.)

TWO, NOT ONE, laundry cases should be provided for each student or person away from home. This arrangement gives better service and saves a lot of family arguments and letters ofasperation—with planned matings there'll be a case at each end of the line! And don't forget that these easily packed and mailed cases are good for shipping other things besides laundry. Personally, I wouldn't be without one for just general family use. A Snellenburg Luggage Dept. has just received a shipment of stonily made fibre cases with metal reinforcements, reversible address cards, leather handles, 21 in. size. Priced at but $2.25 plus 20% tax. (1st fl.)

"FOR MEN ONLY"—a quick clearance of men's warm-up jackets, valued at $9.95 to $19.95. So many different kinds, including gabardines and poplins, all, of course, wind and water-repellent. There are rugged, heavy coats; medium weight jackets, short action jackets; garments lined with sheep, pile, or blanket. Sizes run from 36 to 46. The clearance is now going on in the Sporting Goods Dept. of the Snellenburg store. This is a very satisfying Dept. for both dads and big sons. Prices are extremely fair for the quality of goods displayed. Instructions are free with purchase of materials. (2nd fl.)

P.S. Do send clippings with mail orders when you can! Phone free (5c, 10c, and 15c out-of-town calls only). Penna.—EXT. 10160; Jersey—WX-1150. Shop located Market, 11th to 12th Sts., Phila.—through to 1125-29 Chestnut St. Be hearin' from you! Faithfully, FAITH.

Hot Canapes To Start The Meal

There's no denying that a hot canape makes a delightfully different start to a meal—so here's a most unusual one adapted from the famous "gazpacho" or savory fried bread.

Don't attempt to serve these in the living room because they're strictly first course canapes, requiring at least a fork. You can serve chilled, well-seasoned tomato slices with them right at the table though if you wish.

The advent of air transport for all types of cargo in the near future may make quite a change in the menus of both the Middle American people and ourselves. More meat will be available in Middle America because of new and improved methods of breeding made possible by the air age; while we will be trying, for the first time, many famous tropical fruits and vegetables that are much too perishable to be shipped in any other fashion. Maybe some of these will alter our eating habits as much as the tomato and the banana have done!

This canape recipe is one of the many delicious dishes we can borrow from Middle America:

Hot Canapes, Middle American Style

Workshop Group to Hear Dr. L. M. Jones on Jan. 21

Recreation, the needs of children and adults, and how some Pennsylvania communities have gone about planning a community recreation program are topics to be discussed at the January session of the Bristol Workshop.

Dr. Lloyd M. Jones, professor of physical education at the Pennsylvania State College, will be the speaker, and all Bristolians and others in surrounding communities are invited to attend. The meeting will be held in the Bristol Travel Club home at 7:30 on January 21st.

Dr. Jones, who went to Penn State in 1940, was president of the Pennsylvania Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation last year and is a member of various other state and national groups interested in physical education. He received his A. B. degree at the University of Wichita, Kansas, in 1922; an M. A. at Columbia University (N. Y.) in 1927; and a Ph. D. from the same school in 1935.

TWO GAMES TO BE PLAYED ON R. & H. COURT TONIGHT

Kaiser Cargo Five Will Meet The Strong Panelyte Five In First Encounter

TWO LEAGUE GAMES

Rohm & Haas Five Will Stack Up Against Hightstown Rug Quintet

Two games have been booked for the Rohm and Haas basketball court tonight, starting at 7:30 o'clock. In the first encounter, the Kaiser Cargo five will meet Panelyte, while in the second tilt, Rohm and Haas will stack up against the Hightstown Rug quintet. Both are Mercer County League contests.

The Bristol teams are deadlocked for third place with four wins and five defeats each. A triumph for either team will put it but one game away from the second place Roebing team.

The Rohm and Haas team passed up an opportunity to score an upset victory over the undefeated American Steel five, Tuesday night, when it missed too many set shots. Final score was 40-32 and at half-time, the Steelers were ahead, 24-13.

Manager Tony Castor expects to have his full strength for the Hightstown affair and will start Pice and Roe as forwards; Everitt, center; with Cahall and Lizenhold as guards.

The Kaiser Cargo team has been idle for almost two weeks and in its last start upset the Rohm and Haas team on the local floor. Manager Ted Russo expects to have his strongest lineup including Devon Smith as one of the forwards.

An admission will be charged for the games but membership cards of the Rohm and Haas Social Club will be honored at the door.

HARRIMAN TEAM WILL HAVE CHANCE TO TIE FOR FIRST

Youth League Leadership May Be Decided At Tonight's Contest

EAGLES VS. CATHOLIC

Franklin Boys Are Eager To Match Their Ability Against Harriman

The Harriman team will have an opportunity of moving into a dead-lock for first place in the Bristol Youth League tonight when it meets the Franklin A. C. in the initial game on the Mutual Aid floor. In the nightcap, the Third Ward Eagles and the Catholic Boys Club will be battling it out for third place. Time for the opening tapoff is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock.

The Franklin team is unbeaten in five starts while the sixth ward outfit has been beaten but once in the same number of starts. Edgely was the team that set back the Harriman boys.

The Franklin aggregation is not a high-scoring contingent but its defense is so close that the team does not have to score many points to cop a verdict. The Harriman team plays the same brand of basketball as the league leaders so tonight's fracas is expected to be close from start to finish.

In the first eleven high-scoring players as compiled by Scorer Livia Schlarra, both the Harriman and the Franklin team have but one player. Barbetta is the Franklin player with 53 points while Joe Lentini has scored the same number of points for the sixth warders.

The Third Ward Eagles and the Catholic Boys Clubs have been rivals for several seasons in all sports. It all came about when the Eagles advertised their club-house as the best youth meeting place in Bristol. The Catholic Boys Club members resented the publicity, claiming that their meeting place on Jefferson Avenue, is the best.

Since that time the two clubs have been represented in all sports and have been battling it peacefully. Tonight's contest will have a little more intense rivalry because third place is at stake. The C.B.C. and Eagles have both won three games and lost two and the winner will have undisputed possession of third place with a possibility of a tie for second position.

The Third Ward Eagles will watch "Tommy" Kervick close to night. In the five games played, Kervick has averaged 15.4 points per game. "Johnny" Rodgers, the best the Eagles have to match with Kervick is fifth in the league scoring with 12.6 points per game.
